

Reflection

"I am increasingly aware of life's abundance all around us. At the same time, particularly as a member of the healthcare industry, I am acutely aware of life's frailty. It is in this dichotomy that I find the motivation to give."

Read more

Michael Seagraves

Welcome to PHILANTHROPY...

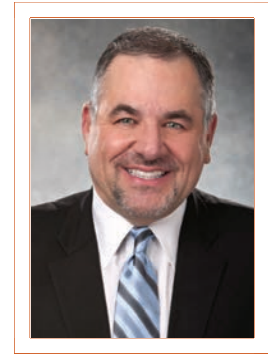

This edition highlights the impact of a few major gifts from the first quarter of FY15. Through Q1, our 31 foundations have raised $18.6 million, representing a $750,000 positive variance compared to budget.

Our FY14 Annual Report is also available for you to review and hopefully share with others. Many of the stories in this year's report show Philanthropy's deep integration with our mission, vision, values. To view the FY14 annual report, visit: gettoknowphilanthropy.info

Sincerely,

Fred Najjar

Senior Vice President, Philanthropy

Newsorthy:

- Tamra von Schroeck, serves as Vice Chair of the AHP International Conference read more.
- Save-the-Date: February 4-5, 2015 for the Philanthropy Education Summit in downtown Long Beach, California.
- Consider making a gift through Employee Self Service

Stories of Philanthropic Impact

1. Celebrity Fight Night Donates \$740,000 to the Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center at Barrow Neurological Institute
2. UniHealth Gives \$670,000 to California Hospital Medical Center Foundation to Reduce Severe Asthma
3. Celebrity Fight Night Gives \$500,000 to the Muhammad Ali Parkinson Center at Barrow Neurological Institute
4. Harold & Carole Pump Foundation Gives \$450,000 to Fight Cancer at Northridge Hospital
5. Robert W. Graber Trust Gives \$400,000 to St. Joseph's Foundation
6. Mildred and William Simmons Family Trust Gives \$324,000 to Mark Twain Medical Center Foundation
7. Smith's Food & Drug Stores Collects \$300,000 in Community Support for St. Rose Dominican Health Foundation
8. Pelican Charitable Foundation Gives \$250,000 to Center for Transitional NeuroRehabilitation at Barrow Neurological Institute

Follow Us:

